QUALITY POLICY

The company "AVIL TECH INGENIERIA Y REPARACIONES NAVALES S.L." (furthermore «Organization») has established, documented, implemented and maintained a quality management system, appropriate to the purpose of the Organization, complying with ISO 9001-2015 International Standard, both the Spain and International legislation requirements, aimed to improve the quality of providing services and consequently the satisfaction of the Customer, and continually controls and improves its effectiveness through:

Recognizing, that detailed studying, and the maximum satisfaction of clients' requirements are main factors in achievement of the established objectives, the Organization gives a priority to this direction in the Quality Policy. Execution of the International and National normative documents requirements during rendering all lists of services is one of basic tasks of the Organization.

Bases on above-mentioned the Organization provided:

- Commercial policy, directed to studying, determines and execution the Client's requirements during rendering a list of Organization's services, included in a scope of Organization's activity;
- Technical policy, directed to determine the processes necessary for quality system functioning, its sequence, interaction and control for use, availability of resources and information necessary for providing their functionality.
- Personnel policy, directed to staffing of Organization structural subdivisions by qualified, competent and professionally trained staff, which can provide execution their duties.
- Social policy, directed to establish the conditions of interest and feeling the personal responsibility of personnel in assurance, functioning and improvement of Organization's quality system
- Health and Safety Policy, directed to ensure safe working conditions for employees and Client's staff during service works.

Top Management of Organization proceeds from the right understanding, knowing and accepting by all Organization's personnel the quality policy when they approve and clarify above mentioned document.

Top Management, considering the variability of external and internal factors of Organization's work, aims to continuous improvement of Organization's quality system by means of management review of quality processes and controlling the situation on the rendering service market.

Efficiency and reality of Quality policy and quality management system in whole analyzed annually in Organization and, in the case of necessity, modifications, supplements or corrections added.

General Director Stanislava Berdnyk

«01» JANUARY 2025

Controlled copy of original only in electronic format
Является контролируемой копией оригинала только в электронном виде